

Christmas Greetings Church Family,

Christmas is a wonderful time of the year. We get to celebrate the Advent of our Savior. The promised Messiah, the One who would redeem man from their sin was indeed the Word that became flesh in the Little Town of Bethlehem. Emmanuel, meaning God with us, was born to the Virgin Mary. This we celebrate! This is why we rejoice! God came from heaven to earth for the purpose of salvation. Wow! What a Savior!!!

December is a very busy month with Christmas parties, shopping, celebrations, etc. I encourage you that during this busy season that we keep in focus the reason for the season is Christ. Let us celebrate Him. Let us gather together for times of worship, Bible Study, and Fellowship. Let us share Jesus and invite people to join us for Church. Let others see Christ in you. Through our words, actions, and time, let us, represent the Christ who Christmas is all about.

Merry Christmas!!! Tonya and I are so thankful to be with you here in Logansport. We look forward to advancing the kingdom of God together here in Logansport and wherever God leads us as a Church. You are precious people who love the Lord and one another and us. We praise God for each of you!

As always, I am grateful to be your pastor.
Blessings, Bro Shawn
